Outstanding Individual Award Certificate Request Form

These certificates are available for each lodge to honor individuals in the lodge who have given outstanding service to the community and the lodge. The certificates can be given at a special volunteer recognition dinner, Christmas party or just during the course of a regular meeting. Five free certificates are available each year to each lodge and, for more than five, please include an additional dollar per certificate.

Community Award: Recognizes an individual who is involved in the community on a large scale and serves on boards, commissions, and special community projects.

Good Neighbor Award: Recognizes an individual who does good deeds in a personal, friendly, and neighborly way. Perhaps they visit many individuals in the nursing homes (not relatives), provides meals on wheels, or takes elderly neighbors and friends to the doctor, grocery store, etc.

Earth Care: Recognizes an individual who has made an outstanding contribution toward conserving natural resources. This may include the farmer who practices good stewardship of soil and water resources in the operation of a family farm business. It may be a person who has pushed his or her city council to adopt a city wide recycle program, or the individual who has chosen to plant a number of trees and encourages others to do likewise.

Lodge Leader: An individual who has, over the course of time, continually given of his or herself to help the lodge grow strong, or an individual who took the initiative or leadership role to organize and host a large event, festival, or fundraiser. This person can be any member, not necessarily an officer.

Youth Award: Recognizes an individual between the ages of 12 and 18 who has been instrumental in organizing a community service project in his or her school or community. The recipient could also be a young person who has participated in a worthwhile project or cause on a frequent basis.
