Graduating Members

Please list all members from your lodge who will be graduating from high school, technical school, or college this year so that we can recognize them in the May Fraternal Herald. (Please note that the graduate must be a member in good standing; not the parents or grandparents.) Graduates' names will also be placed in a drawing for three prizes of $100 each from the Home Office.
This information must be submitted by April 15 for it to appear in the May issue.

Lodge Scholarships

We frequently have questions from members who are wondering if their lodge offers a scholarship. If you offer a scholarship through your lodge, we will put the information on our website if provided with the information. If any information about your scholarship has changed since it was originally put on the web, please indicate below. If you have a letter or an application form, we can put that on the website as well to promote your scholarship.
