Family Benefit Application*

The Western Fraternal Life’s Family Benefit was initiated to assist members to help cover the costs associated with senior care, child care, respite care, elementary and secondary education, or extracurricular activities. Up to five $1,000 Family Benefits will be awarded each August. Applicants must be members in good standing for two years prior to the application and remain a member in good standing to receive the award. Applications will be accepted between May 1 and July 1 each year. Awards will be based on the essay below. All applications will be considered, and an independent third party will select the winners. Members may apply for this benefit each year. All application information will be kept confidential.
